Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO to Host Fourth Online Interactive Town Hall for Members

Windsor, ON – On Thursday, April 7 from 12:00 – 12:30 p.m., Matt Marchand, Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO, will be hosting an Online Interactive Town Hall with Chamber members.

During the Town Hall, Marchand will outline this year's activities, upcoming events, and discuss plans for the future of the Chamber. A Question and Answer session with members will follow.

The past four years have seen the Chamber rise to new visibility and advocate on behalf of its members more than ever before. Some of these advocacy issues include Auto Strategy, Road TRIP (Travel Rebate Incentive Program), Skills Mismatch, Single Sports Betting, Minimum Wage, Immigrant Investors, Cross-Border Shopping, Interest Arbitration, Energy, and Agri-Food (PACA – Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act).

This advocacy was recognized by the Ontario Chamber of Commerce as the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber was awarded its first ever Advocacy Award for its work in 2012, the OCC Chair's Award for its Gold Circle Program in 2013, and two OCC Awards for advocacy for Single Sports Betting in 2014.

The Online Interactive Town Hall will take place online at AnyMeeting.com. Members will be able to login online or phone in to listen to the presentation. To register, email Lindsey Rivait, Communications Coordinator, at lrivait@windsor-essexchamber.org.
