MEDIA ADVISORY

November 10, 2016

Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO Matt Marchand and Tracey Ramsey, MP Essex, Keynoting at Charles E. Brooks Dinner

Windsor, Ontario – For the first time a Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce (WERCC) President & CEO will be a keynote speaker at the Labour Appreciation Night. WERCC President & CEO Matt Marchand and Tracey Ramsey MP Essex, will be keynote speakers at the Labour Appreciation Night, featuring the presentation of the Charles E. Brooks Labour Community Service Award. This takes place Friday, November 18, 2016 at the Caboto Club, located at 2175 Parent Ave. Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

The Charles E. Brooks Labour Community Service Award is presented to a Labour Community Activist and Volunteer for the work they do to improve the lives of others in our community. This year the award will be presented to Professor Brian E. Brown, Windsor University Faculty Association (WUFA).

“The WERCC is proud to partner with Windsor-Essex’s labour community for such an important event. By collaborating with labour, business, government, and community groups such as United Way/Centraide Windsor-Essex County, we can build on our strengths to improve our community,” said Marchand. “I look forward to speaking at this outstanding event and congratulating Brian on his well-deserved recognition.”

To purchase tickets, contact Maureen Curtis, Manager of Labour Programs and Services, United Way/Centraide Windsor-Essex County by November 10 at (519) 258-0000 ext. 1184 or mcurtis@weareunited.com.
