Windsor-Essex Regional and Leamington District Chambers Partner to Present May Regional After Business Tradeshow and Networking Event Presented by Johnson Insurance at the Canadian Historical Aircraft Association Hangar

Windsor, ON – The Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce has partnered with the Leamington District Chamber of Commerce to host the 2017 May Regional After Business Tradeshow and Networking Evening at the Canadian Historical Aircraft Association Hangar, located at 2600 Airport Rd. on Thursday, May 11, 2017 from 4:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

“This will be the largest After Business of the year giving our guests the opportunity to mingle with Essex County’s business professionals. For seven years, we have partnered with the Leamington Chamber on this great event and we are pleased to continue our alliance,” said Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO Matt Marchand.

Up to 40 exhibitors will showcase their services and products at the business to business tradeshow in the Canadian Historical Aircraft Association Hangar.

The Canadian Historical Aircraft Association, home to Windsor's own Lancaster bomber and Mosquito KB161, is located at the west end of Windsor International Airport, occupying the original hangar of #7 Elementary Flying Training School which was built in 1940 as part of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan. After a major renovation this historical hangar is now open for tours and event rentals.

The guests will be one of the first to see this amazing venue, a part of our history. Then they will experience propelled up networking with business professionals while enjoying complimentary appetizers and a cash bar.

Guests and exhibitors can register online by visiting www.windsorsexchamber.org. Advance prices end Friday, April 7.

Sponsored by: Blackburn Radio, Johnson Insurance, and the Canadian Historical Aircraft Association.
