Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce and New Canadians' Centre of Excellence Inc. Presents Conference Board of Canada Seminar

Windsor, Ontario – The Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce is hosting a Conference Board of Canada Seminar on Friday, December 7, 2012 at the Hospice of Windsor Auditorium (6038 Empress St.) from 7:30 – 9:30 a.m.

Featured Guest Speaker Diana MacKay (Director, Education, Health and Immigration Programs, The Conference Board of Canada) will lead a workshop about how you can tap the data, research, and networks of The Conference Board of Canada relating to Education, Health and Immigration.

Diana created and continues to lead one of The Conference Board's most dynamic executive networks, the Leaders' Roundtable on Immigration. Diana previously spent ten years with the World Bank in Washington, D.C. Diana earned a BA in Japanese Studies from Wellesley College and a Masters in Public Policy from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

"We are delighted to have Diana MacKay on board for this workshop to assist our members and the business community in taking advantage of what The Conference Board of Canada has to offer," said Matt Marchand, Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO.

This seminar is sponsored by the New Canadians' Centre of Excellence Inc. and the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Matt Marchand, Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO, Diana MacKay of The Conference Board of Canada and Reza Shahbazi Executive Director of the NCCE will be available for media comment before 7:30 a.m. or after 9:30 a.m.
