Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce Supports Presidential Permit Application for New International Trade Crossing (NITC)

Windsor, Ontario – The Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce has written a letter of support of the June 18, 2012 application for a Presidential Permit by the New International Trade Crossing (NITC).

The Presidential Permit is required in order for the NITC bridge to proceed. “The Chamber has been in support of a new border crossing for years and believes this step forward will ensure future economic development and a positive climate for business attraction on both sides of the border,” stated Matt Marchand, President and CEO of the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce.
