Doing Business with Canada Seminar Held in Windsor

March 7, 2013 - Windsor, Ontario – The Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Canadians' Centre of Excellence Inc. hosted a seminar for the Windsor-Essex business community on how to do business with the Canadian government.

The information session featured speakers from the Government of Canada Office of Small and Medium Enterprises and presentations by several other key government departments including:

- The National Research Council
- The Natural Science and Engineering Research Council, and
- SR&ED program office of the Canada Revenue Agency

"How to do business with the Canadian government session is a great benefit to our membership," says Matt Marchand, President and CEO of the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce. "The federal government buys $15 Billion of goods and services every year. Windsor-Essex Chamber members are some of the best entrepreneurs in the country and we want to help with their exposure to this significant business opportunity."

"Information seminars such as this also helps newcomer entrepreneurs to connect with government services," says Reza Shahbazi, Executive Director, New Canadians' Centre of Excellence Inc. "It's a chance to share and provide tools and opportunities to establish businesses in our community."

The information session was attended by more than 70 local businesses at the Caboto Club.

To access the Chamber's upcoming events you can visit the Chamber's website at www.windsorchamber.org. Chamber members will be able to access the presentation in the coming days.
