Chamber hosts Minister of Health and Long-Term Care Luncheon

February 1, 2012 - Windsor, Ontario – The Honourable Deb Matthews Minister of Health and Long-Term Care will present the McGuinty government's action plan to transform health care at the Minister of Health and Long-Term Care Luncheon, presented by the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce.

At the event, taking place Friday, February 3, 2012 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Caboto Club (2175 Parent Ave.), Matthews will speak on improving access to care and quality for care, as well as on navigating tough fiscal and demographic challenges.

Matthews was appointed to her current position as Minister of Health and Long-Term Care in October 2009 and is committed to building a more sustainable health care system with shorter wait times and better access to high quality family health care.

The Minister of Health and Long-Term Care Luncheon is sponsored by Go For Health, Windsor Regional Hospital Foundation, Hotel-Dieu Grace Hospital Foundation, John McGivney Children's Centre, and the Leamington District Memorial Hospital.

A heart healthy lunch of fish (orange roughy) will be served. For any dietary restrictions, please contact Marianne Burke.

Tickets are $35 + HST for Members or $280 + HST for a table of 8. Tickets for Non-Members are $40 + HST or $320 + HST for a table of 8. Register online at www.windsorchamber.org/events.
