Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce Luncheon Roundtable Featuring Jean-Yves Duclos, Federal Minister of Families, Children & Social Development

Windsor, ON – Tomorrow, March 23, 2017 the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce is hosting a Luncheon Roundtable featuring the Honourable Jean-Yves Duclos, Liberal Minister of Families, Children & Social Development from 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber of Commerce, located at 2575 Ouellette Place.

Duclos will be discussing the Post Federal Budget 2017 Review with Chamber members and guests.

Minister Jean-Yves Duclos was Director of the Department of Economics and a tenured professor at l'Université Laval. As a well-published author, conference speaker, and renowned economics expert, he was often asked to comment on current events in Quebec and Canada.

In addition to his professorial duties, Jean-Yves held and co-founded the Industrial Alliance Research Chair on the Economics of Demographic Change, was President-elect of the Canadian Economics Association, and was a member of the Institut sur le vieillissement et la participation sociale des aînés. He was also Vice-President and Fellow of the Centre interuniversitaire de recherche en analyse des organisations, Senior Fellow of the Fondation pour les études et les recherches sur le développement international and Fellow-in-Residence at the C.D. Howe Institute. Lastly, Jean-Yves is co-founder of the Poverty and Economic Policy Research Network (Partnership for Economic Policy, PEP).

Jean-Yves earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics (First-Class Honours) from the University of Alberta, and his master's and doctoral degrees in Economics from the London School of Economics and Political Science. He has been rewarded for relentless hard work with prestigious grants, the Société canadienne de science économique's prix Marcel Dagenais, and the Harry Johnson Award for best paper published in the Canadian Journal of Economics.

In 2014, Jean-Yves was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, the highest accolade bestowed on Canadian researchers.
