Member Spotlight: Cogeco Connexion

Cogeco Connexion has been providing services to their customers for nearly 60 years and currently provides its residential and small business customers with video, Internet and telephony services through its two-way broadband cable networks.

Cogeco has been a long time Member of the Windsor-Essex Regional Chamber and values this partnership that has helped their local staff make connections with other organizations in the community. Cogeco is especially honoured that the Ontario Chamber of Commerce recently recognized them as the 'Community Builder' of the year. It's because of their relationship with the local Chambers that they were nominated for this prestigious Ontario wide Award.

Cogeco invests $2.5 million in Ontario annually and support local organizations such as Transition to Betterness, Hospice of Windsor-Essex County and Welcome Centre Shelter for Women to name a few. The contributions are given through both monetary and CogecoTV in-kind services. CogecoTV has also been the exclusive television broadcaster of the Chamber's Business Excellence Awards for many years.

United Way Centraide Windsor-Essex County

Karen Brady has been with United Way since 2013. She is currently the Acting Vice President of Marketing and Communications. Before that, she was a TV and radio reporter, producer, and web editor with CBC Windsor News. She also reported provincial and national stories for the website, and
